January Events and Activities at WOW! Children's Museum

Lafayette, Colorado - WOW! Children's Museum (World of Wonder) today announced upcoming events and activities at the Museum during the month of January.

Demo French Class - Wednesday, January 12th

Children ages 3-6 years are invited to try out a free demo French class at the Museum from 10:00am-10:40am. Simple vocabulary will be taught and pronunciation will be introduced in this interactive language class. Six week session begins on Wednesday, January 19th; advanced registration required.

Diversity Day - Monday, January 17th

Celebrate Diversity! Enjoy a special Lion dance performance by the Shaolin Hung Mei Kung Fu Association at 12:00pm! Martin Luther King Jr. Day and other diversity themed crafts available in WOW!'s Art Room while supplies last! All included with your Museum admission. WOW! will be open on Martin Luther King Jr. Day from 9:00am-5:00pm.

Drop-In Science Explorations - January 18th and January 19th

This Month's Topic: Diversity

Curious about how to approach science with your kids? Join WOW! this month for family science fun! Drop-in science explorations are informal hands-on science sessions that are included with your Museum admission. Drop-in science is open for exploration from 10:00am-2:00pm.

Vocal & Song Workshop for Kids - Saturday, January 22nd

Join local singer and songwriter Rebecca Abraxas for a vocal and song workshop at 11:00am! Children will learn about voice through playing with breath and sound and having fun with songs while being introduced to the elements of listening, inspiration, and rhythm. Included with your Museum admission!
